Wakhaba Will Marry is a heart-warming, coming of age romance that follows Wakhaba's journey through life and love. Wakhaba is the star of his village, the first to step into a university and bring home not one, but two degrees. His village is proud of his achievements. They join him in celebrating every milestone he makes. However, as the years go by and Wakhaba does not bring home a wife, the question that is foremost on peoples' minds is "Will Wakhaba Marry?"Wakhaba is not thinking about marriage. He is pursuing his dreams. As he expands his worldview, he finds himself but loses his first love, Anaya. The beautiful women he meets along the way deepen the wedge between him and Anaya, and she is now nothing more than a distant acquaintance. This is until Anaya moves to Nairobi and reignites in him a passion that he thought was dead. Will her proximity draw them back together or have they become so different, alienated forever by time and circumstances? "This book attempts to identify the location of all churches and graveyards in every county of Ireland ... All are identified against their townland within the appropriate civil parish and county ... the Ordnance Survey six-inch map will pinpoint its exact location." --Intro.
